THE ADVENTURES OF MOSS BOSS & DIXIE

DIXIE'S FIRST FIELD MISSION

Notice what everyone else walks past.

Dixie notices things people miss. For this mission, take an adult, choose a safe public place, and investigate one small detail you have never really noticed before.

1 · NOTICE

What did you spot?

It might be a date, symbol, sign, building detail, trail marker, old photograph, unusual object, change in the landscape, or something else that makes you curious.

Place: _____

The detail I noticed:

_____

_____

2 · ASK

What do you think it might mean — and what question would help you find out?

My first guess: _____

My question: _____

3 · CHECK

Find one trustworthy answer with your adult.

Good places to check include:

- a sign or plaque at the location
- a library, museum, historical society, park, or government source
- a book or source your adult trusts

Source we checked: _____

What we found:

_____

_____

4 · BRING BACK THE DISCOVERY

What surprised you? Did your answer change after you checked?

_____

_____

DIXIE CHECK: The best discovery is not always the biggest one. It is often the detail everyone else walked past.

FIELD RULES

Go with an adult. Stay on public paths and follow posted signs. Never climb, dig, enter restricted areas, cross barriers, search tunnels/mines/drains, or enter private property for a clue. You never need to share your location or a child's information to complete this mission.
